Overview

Purpose

The purpose of this site is to teach visitors about famous mythical creatures from different cultures around the world. The site will provide descriptions, origins, abilities, and interesting facts about creatures such as dragons, wraiths, and Wendigo.

Audience

The audience for this site includes students, fantasy fans, and anyone interested in mythology or legendary creatures. The content is designed to be easy to read and educational while also being entertaining.

Dynamic elements

JavaScript will provide several interactive features on the site.

- A list of mythical creatures stored in an array of objects
 - Creatures will be displayed dynamically on the page using JavaScript
 - Users can filter creatures by culture with origins page drop down menu
 - Users can use a search bar to find creatures, abilities, or origins
 - Clicking on a creature will display more detailed information to the side and enlarge a gallery image of the creatures
 - JavaScript will use array methods such as filter() and forEach()
 - Event listeners will react to button clicks or dropdown selections
